FROM : Chief, FBM
SUBJECT: ICEBERG

1. In connection with the preparation of stay-behind plans in FBM, there has been activated in Germany a school for the training of W/T operators. This is a necessary first step in preparation of any effective stay-behind plans, but equally necessary is the development of the schooling program for agent personnel to be used in connection with the sets which we will bury.

2. While in some instances it will be possible to use intelligence gathering personnel who have been trained and made familiar with our practices during the present stage of events, it is apparent that emergency conditions will necessitate the recruitment of new and different personnel who can accomplish entirely different objectives. It is strongly urged that consideration be given to the establishment of a school in Germany for training of agents for intelligence work, specifically on reporting Soviet OB and other strategic information.
